Accommodation For Weakness

By Minister R. Thomas Lambur

Spiritual Strength Makes Religious Spirit Real Nervous

Here are some of the main teachings and examples of the operation of Religious spirits in the church that I have outlined in these three points:

1) They make you value spiritual weakness. They propagate that weakness has some type of divine work. I am not talking ignorantly here understanding we are human beings that have human weakness, but God's grace and God's Spirit and God's word is there to help us remove those weakness in our lives, and while we may have had weakness we have now been made strong through God's power and abilities. So whether we have weakness is not a question, it is what we do with those weakness. What are we doing about it is the question. Do we remove those weakness or do we build some type of memorial to them and say, "This is my vice, this is my thing." "My weakness... My complex." We can get rid of all these weakness and come into strength in the Lord! Whatever is off track - JESUS through the power of His word and the power of His Spirit wants to takewhat is weak and bring it back on track and change it. When God takes away weakness in our lives and replaces it with His strength we also can be a help to others. Religion will teach and accommodate for weakness in our lives.

2) Religious spirits teach to accommodate for sickness, and mental depressions and oppressions that come from the devil, etc.. They teach that the storms of life you must bitterly go through and be glad when they are over. Religion will not teach you to stand up and say, "Peace be still," to the storms of life. Religion will not let you stand up in the strength of who you are as a new creation - son of God in Christ Jesus (joint heir with Christ Jesus) and say to the devil that is buffeting you, "I bind you! ...in the Name of Jesus! ...get out of my life!" ..."Let go of my son ...get out!" Religion wants you to accommodate the continual robbing of your joy and strength ...robbing of your health ...robbing of your spiritual authority and strength to turn things around for you! Religion teaches weakness mental depression. God doesn't want you to have a blue Monday ...a terrible Tuesday ...a weird Wednesday. He wants you to have great days living in His Spirit.

What I am saying here ...that you don't have storms of life? Yes, we encounter storms of life but we are not to continue on living in storms of life. We are to come out of them! Religion teaches that we never come out of them and that we are to just weather through them not to take dominion over them as a child of God with the covenant benefits of God and the power of God to actually change them. Jesus delivers people from the storms of life and He gave us authority over the buffeting spirits of the devil assigned to us ...to resist them! The Bible says that you are to resist the devil and he will flee. We do that by submitting ourselves to God who (((gives us))) the spiritual power of His might to drive out the devil and all his imps in any circumstances! Resistance doesn't come from spiritually weak people. KNOW IT! Religion teaches weakness. So you will never find spiritual strength, resistance or victory advocated by Religious spirits. All Religious spirits bring and foster in peoples spirits is wimpy, weak, anemic, (((TOLLERANCE))) for defeat. Religion teaches to accept ignorantly the lack of strength as the normal mode of the Christian life for believers. Religion builds a false lesson that you are to try to learn ...like if you have a sickness ..."Well the Lord is trying to teach me something." Sincere people are often taken in by Religious spirits by accepting that there is some lesson behind them, experiencing these demonic circumstances, when in reality the lesson they should be learning is how to fight the devil and win the victory that has already been won at the cross ...namely that Jesus' atonement paid for sickness to be destroyed in their body! These people are sincerely wrong and sincerely ignorant. Often these ministers are protecting these type teachings wrongly and for example ...Religious teaching they have accepted ...thus reinforcing sickness, depressions, demonic oppressions, and attacks of the enemy in that it is going to teach us something ...and other false religious teachings that rob people from coming into all their covenant benefits in Christ Jesus. Religious spirit defends the wrong thing ... instead of taking the position of "Let's believe God to destroy that cancerous tumor and growth." "Let's believe God that the power of the anointing of God destroys that sickness, take off that depression, removes this oppression of the devil." "Let's believe God for the victory!" Let's believe God that God will destroy every evil yoke that Satan is trying to place upon the body of Christ.

Religious spirits accommodate spiritual weakness as some type of human honor.

Religious spirits accommodate spiritual ignorance.

They say, "Don't read your Bible and believe the promises of God there just accept the religious traditions that nullify your benefits ...the benefits that Jesus Christ paid for with His blood at the cross. No Religious spirit wants you to enter in to all that Jesus has paid for and for you to live in victory, taking dominion over the problems or hurtles that the devil has placed in your way.

Religion says, "Just sit down here and tolerate the mountains in your life," while Jesus says and teaches - to take authority over the mountains and through faith in His power ... tell them to be removed and cast into the sea! It is evident that if we are truly living in a relationship with Jesus that the real covenant benefits will be fulfilled in the lives of those who take Him at His word. Religious spirits always reinterpret the Bible for us to nullify the benefits or put them in a place that simple child like faith can't receive. What a contrast between what Jesus teaches and Religious spirits teach in the church.

3) Religious spirits are deceitful. They cloke their workings under what looks like genuine and yet it is a counterfeit working.

Mk. 11:28-33 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things? And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me. And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed. And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

Religious spirits when confronted by the word of God and the Spirit of God are always political and avoid answering truthfully. They seek to hide themselves by cloaking themselves in formality and sanctimony. Jesus took off the mask of religion and the face of religion was ugly ..because it is sinful!

Jn. 15:22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin. Jesus striped away the religious cloke by exposing the motives of their hearts by the word of God.

Heb. 4:12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

The intents of Religious spirits is to have a façade or form of what is the real. Religious spirits quote the word of God but never do it themselves. Religious spirits say; "I am not accountable to anyone except God alone!" "God is the only one who can correct me." This is because they do not want to submit to God's word and Spirit. Religious spirits are in fact those who are assuming leadership in the church and are not accountable to the Lord!

Religious spirits have no reins upon them like horses as in an example of wild horses running away with a carriage out of control. Having no control over them... doing what they desire fulfilling their own desires and their own agendas.

Not accountable to God. They are not plugged in, they don't have a real connection, and they're faking it!

Heb. 12:9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live (eternally)?

Religious are not in subjection to the Lord. The Bible describes these people as not true sons of God who are willing to submit to the correction and reproofs of the word of God. All people in the body of Christ are to be accountably to each other and to the Lord in working on the Lord's behalf and are all called into accountability.

Eph. 5:21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear (reverence of God's word and Spirit as the supreme authority) of God.

Anyone can bring the corrections needed to anyone out of line with God's word. No one is above the correction and reproofs, and instructions of the word of God!

Religious spirits primarily assume authority without the Bible then turn around and tell everyone that "Only God can bring them correction." This is the function of a Religious spirit, they are OUTLAWS. This allows the Religious spirit room to do whatever they please and fulfill their own agendas building man-made traditions into the church rather than the foundation of the word of God. Religious spirits operate from a totally man centered authority by twisting the Word of God around and eliminating any checks, balances, or accountability. Religious spirits get away with a lot in the church because people do not understand the Spiritual authority of God. Many times if Religious spirits are left and allowed to continue spinning web of their operations in the church, giving the time to set up elders with the same Religious spirits around them and form a church government which will allow for their own agendas to be fulfilled. In contrast, Religious outlaw spirits CALL those who bring God's word for reproofs "critical spirits" so that they will not have to submit to the reproofs of God's Word. This maneuver is found and reinforced so that congregations can have no say in the following of God at a church. It turns the congregation into followers of men instead of followers of God if they don't have Jesus as their head, and Scripture as the source and final authority.

It is sad that many of those who follow Religious (outlaw spirits) are ignorantly allowing men to take over the church and dismiss the Holy Spirit and headship of Jesus Christ as the supreme authority of the church.

Religious (outlaw) spirits are turned out of the way of the Lord.

Heb. 12:13 And make straight paths for your feet (walking according to God's word and Spirit),lest that which is lame be turned out of the way...

Religious spirits are LAME! They are not "right" according to heaven!

Religious spirits are ABNORMAL. They are WEIRD! They are CREEPY!

They set up their man-made agendas and learn the art of ministry WITHOUT THE MOVEMENT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. In reality where there is not anointing they function by making up actions that mimic spiritualism and mind control cults who dabble in the here-say not the genuine things of the Spirit . Religious (outlaw) spirits do not have their conformability or functionality from heaven. They are operating as an imitation to the real cutting edge of the Holy Spirit which truly works powerfully.

Example:

Normally the Spirit of God with overwhelming presence will overcome people when He touches them, but Religious spirits without the true anointing will make up that difference by imitating the Spirit of God and pushing people down physically. It does take discernment from God here to understand the difference. Not all who lay on hands are doing it without the anointing of God because not all are Religious spirits. I am talking about Religious operations that mimic the real Holy Spirit of God. They are really out there.

Sometimes they yell real loud to make people think they are really anointed of God or authoritative, but it is not how loud we yell but in the power of the Spirit and anointing as we are co-operation with Him that does the job.

Sometimes they display themselves as real authoritative to others around them to intimidate them from trying to challenge them on the basis of God's word. They could be way off base but they try to intimidate those around them never to challenge anything they speak.. the opposite is true Biblically. For the most part many Religious spirits if they don't feel that they can pull the wool over your eyes, they will try to avoid anyone who will bring them into the accountability of the word of God on a subject.

Religious spirits set up their own churches and make people converts of themselves not Christ Jesus!

Acts 20:30 Also of your own selves shall men arise (religious outlaw spirits), speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

2Tim. 4:3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine (the foundations and headship of Jesus Christ - His word and His Spirit leading); but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears...

Because of the lust for their own agendas which sanction their own ways and justifies their own doings men make their idolatries into a religion and trade the leading of Christ for the leadings of man-made religion!

What a trade off. This is why their churches have LOAMMI & ICHABOD written upon their church door.

Hosea 1:9Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

1Sam. 4:21Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed ...

Religious (outlaw) its are not called sons of God and do not have the Spirit of God with them.

RELIGION CAN NEVER REPLACE A TRUE
CONNECTION WITH GOD'S PRECIOUS HOLY SPIRIT IN OUR LIVES!
