

LWMORG

When My Attention Is Upon The Lord, His Kingdom Comes Into My Life

To seek out my Lord and find Him, I must seek Him with all my heart. My soul's eyes must be kept upon the Lord; all my attention must be placed upon Him. If I consecrate myself in this way unto Him, placing my spirit under His Lordship, He will now see and manifest Himself to me; and in the hours spent before Him, He will cause me to see Him as He truly is. He knows when I am contrite and He does not reject me if I truly seek Him in humility of mind and heart. My attention and where my heart is, is to know His person intimately; for He is my treasure, wealth, and riches above all this world has to offer. He is my only source from which comes divine pleasures unfathomable, yet only known to them who hunger and thirst to be filled and have diligently searched to know His heart and mind. The first and last, the all encompassing fact that I know well, is that I must choose this best part the same as Mary did, that part of listening intimately at my Lord's feet. His truth is made known as I daily read His word, pray fervently, listen in the silence, and meditate fully upon Him. I am set apart for this whole purpose, as I empty myself and make room for Him to fill me up with the wisdom of the ages... spoken by His very lips to my inner being. When I have reached into that place where my spirit and His Spirit are merged together, my faith in Him penetrates into the realm of the Spirit, reaching into the hidden secrets of God now revealed. My soul discovers vast depths of resources, otherwise unknown, by the entrance of His light. When my soul constantly and continuously gazes upon God, fixed to see Him in all His splendor, His divine anointing flows out to me, and an increased awareness of His presence grows in my soul. Like a lamplighter who has come to light His lamp, soon my soul is inflamed with His presence as waves of His pure light and Spirit crash through and fill every barren corner with ceaseless energy. His presence grows ever stronger until my heart experiences the depths and heights, width and lengths of His encounter, which is stronger than death, with life giving resurrection power to my spirit. When His holy fire envelops our soul, He is experienced in the surging pulsations of a burning flame. This fire consumes us and we are aglow with a fresh anointing, a refilling, a refreshing that floods us so much that our soul does take flight by its overwhelming, at the experience we have thus received. What is this new beauty of holiness which now has come to rest seated in our soul, that now indwells our person? This person indwelling me is infinitely beautiful and flawless, He is the person sent to help me in all my character shortcomings. We have discovered and become aware of the person who now is living in our heart of hearts, who wishes to speak to us and live His life out through us. He will whisper His words and since our heart does wait in silence, His voice pierces that silence. His light is brilliant, His truth cleansing, His heart is magnificently pure and it will transform those who have His companionship. Abiding in this vine, the life-giving empowerment will transform us into His image and likeness. Now, since we have found this entrance of fellowship through the Holy Veil that has been rent in two by His cross, now step by step, hand in hand with our High Priest Jesus Christ our Lord we have received through His glorious presence, we are ever more attentive and sensitive to have a listening ear as the Lord has asked us to have ears that will listen and understand. Our fellowship now is most precious; our minutes and moments daily are now most precious, and He guides us along through this day with graces and blessings...rewards that come.... diligently fixing our spiritual eyes daily on Him. Remember, to be among those who have become spiritually minded and have His mind to do earthly good, I must keep spiritually attentive. May His Kingdom Come and His Will Be Done On Earth as it is In Heaven.

